Verbal ethics briefing for filers of financial disclosure reports

All employees who file financial disclosure reports (public or confidential), are required to receive an annual ethics briefing. For 2003, this requirement may be met by attending one of the briefings that are offered in the month of June. Employees may select a time and schedule their briefings through AdminSTAR. Managers will be provided a list of employees in their departments who must receive an ethics briefing. For more information, contact Lonia Moore at 544-0023.
